

As a national Lutheran university, worship life is integral to the spirit of Valpo. Opportunities for spiritual growth are rich and varied, touching the lives of more than three quarters of our students each week.

While Lutherans comprise the largest percentage of any religious denomination on campus, there are many differing beliefs and faiths present at Valpo. One fourth of our students are Catholic, while others practice various Protestant faiths, along with Judaism, Buddhism, Islam, and more.

- Chapel of the Resurrection
- Office of Church Relations
- A Lutheran Look and More
- Religious Organizations & Programs
- St. Teresa of Avila Catholic Student Center