

Hello International Students and Friends,

October is in sight! We are about a month into the semester and hopefully you have found your routine after the craziness of the semester start. This weekend is Homecoming, and there are some fantastic opportunities to go out, have fun, and relax. Pay special attention to: International Food Bazaar, Homecoming football game, and outdoor game day featuring cricket!

TOMORROW - International Food Bazaar

The food bazaar is so close you can almost taste it! International students are cooking food and selling it at the intramural field close to the football field (location recently changed). Bring cash, and make sure to get there early before the food runs out!
