

Hello International Students and Friends,

We hope you had a wonderful Easter during the long weekend! With just one month of classes left, classwork may start to feel overwhelming for some. It is important to take time to de-stress and take a bit of time to enjoy activities around Valpo. See the following for some excellent ways to get out and meet new people: Friendship Family Game Night, Solar Eclipse Viewing, and more!

Sunday, April 7 - Iftar Feast

VISA is hosting an iftar feast (breaking a fast) this Sunday at 7:20pm. Join us as we have a delicious dinner. No sign up necessary, and this is free!

Monday, April 8 - Solar Eclipse Viewing

Although the OIP has reached max capacity to bring people to watch the solar eclipse, we still encourage you to join us at the Valparaiso Central Park Plaza to see this once in a lifetime opportunity! We plan to be there from 1:40pm-2:40pm on Monday, and there will be food trucks, music, and a chance to see the eclipse through a telescope. Hope you see you there!

Tuesday, April 9 - Valpo Day

Valpo Day is an annual effort to build a better, stronger Valparaiso University. For 24 hours, students, alumni, faculty, staff, parents, and the community will come together to radiate their impact on the world through gifts to support scholarships, campus orgs, academic colleges, and much more. Some activities include:

- Valpo Day Bingo at the Harre Union West Lawn
- Photo ops with Beacon and Blaze
- 360 photo booth
- and more!

Show your school spirit by wearing your brown and gold!
