Law 506–Negotiation

Professor Vance

FIRST ASSIGNMENT FOR 506 NEGOTIATION CLASS

Monday, January 11, 2016, 1:30 – 3:20 p.m. Stride Courtroom

In the Craver text (2d ed.), read: Chapter 1(Introduction);

Chapter 7 (Influence of Negotiator Styles), pages 81 – 88; DO NOT LOOK AT PAGES 91 - 106 (Singlepart-Largecorp Purchase Agreement Simulation);

Chapter 8 (Impact of Process on Post-Negotiation Feelings), pages 107-108.

Over break, you might want to read or get started reading Getting To Yes because I'd like you to have it read by January 25. After January 25, you will be writing a short critique on it for a grade. The book is only 190 pages and a short read.

This book started the revolution of problem-solving negotiation. The terms will sound familiar to you from ADR class. I would like you to read with the goal of learning to negotiate using the problem-solving process and the tactics the authors suggest in Parts III and V.

Law 655-All Sections–ALS

Professor Lesniewski

Professor Kass
