What is a Local Food Summit?

If you are interested in increasing the availability of local food in your community, please come and share your thoughts and experience. You will meet others with similar interests and discuss how to move forward to rebuild your local food system.

Who should attend?

Growers – farmers, food producers, business owners

Markets/Buyers - Grocers, restaurants, chefs, food service directors for institutions such as universities, schools, hospitals and elder care facilities

Distributors – businesses, entrepreneurs, wholesalers, food banks

Community - leaders, minority groups, health organizations, economic development

Food consumers!!

Please inform the Purdue Extension-Porter County office of any dietary restrictions or special accommodation requests by April 17. "Purdue University Cooperative Extension Service is an equal access/equal opportunity institution."
