NEW-STUDENT ORIENTATION

NEW-STUDENT ORIENTATION SCHEDULE

Bring your FOCUS folder and pen to all sessions. All times are Central Time (the same as Chicago).

WELCOME TO VALPO

Dear Valpo Student:

Valparaiso University proudly welcomes you — the newest member of our community. This is an exciting time as you begin your personal journey at Valpo.

FOCUS provides you with the knowledge and support necessary to ensure a successful transition. You'll have the opportunity to meet your classmates, learn about campus services and student life, and register for classes.

The FOCUS staff is available to help throughout your visit. We're so pleased you have decided to join the Valpo community and look forward to getting to know you even better.

Sincerely,

Ryan Bye

Director of Student Involvement & New Student Programs

WHO IS YOUR ORIENTATION ASSISTANT?

PIPER LOGAN '26

Piper Logan '26 is a junior elementary education major with a psychology minor from Hobart, Indiana. She chose to attend Valpo because she fell in love with the campus, education program, and the amazing opportunities offered here. She is involved in Gamma Phi Beta sorority, SALT, the Education Executive Board, and Dance Marathon. When not in classes, Piper loves to draw, walk outside, and listen to music. Her favorite thing to do off campus is go downtown with friends and eat at her favorite restaurant!

ZACH NIELSEN '26

Zach Nielsen '26 is a junior computer engineering and physics double-major from Bloomington, Illinois. He chose to attend Valpo due to a great campus tour and the strong engineering department. Around campus, you can find Zach involved in the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, or working in the Hesse Center. What Zach likes the most about Valpo are the people and the opportunities that are available here.

SAVANNAH VELA '25

Savannah Vela '25 is a senior elementary education major with a music minor from Highland, Indiana. Her favorite memories at Valpo include Songfest, Valpo Vibes, and Homecoming. When it comes to campus involvement, Savannah serves on the Panhellenic Council and is in Chi Omega sorority, Valpo Music, Celebrate! Praise Band, and the Education Executive Board! In her free time, she loves to spend time with friends, visit coffee shops downtown, and listen to music.

CODY TURNER '27

Cody Turner '27 is a sophomore civil engineering major from Crown Point, Indiana. He chose to attend Valpo because of the connection that the College of Engineering faculty have with students. He loves Valpo's size and the community connections across campus. He likes to hang out with his friends on campus and loves getting involved with campus events! He is also a member of Christ College – The Honors College and Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

BRYN BENZING '25

Bryn Benzing '25 is a senior nursing major with a minor in human biology from Columbia City, Indiana. She chose to attend Valpo because she felt at home on her tour and knew that Valpo was a place that would help her grow. Bryn maintains active involvement on campus as a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, Student Nurses Association, Undergraduate Nursing Research, and the Dance Marathon Leadership Team! In her free time, she loves walking around downtown, attending athletic events, and participating in on-campus events.

JOSEPH SLEWEON '26

Joseph Sleweon '26 is a junior music education major from Merrillville, Indiana. He chose to attend Valpo because of the rigorous music program and welcoming environment on campus. At Valpo, Joseph is involved in numerous organizations such as the Luce Concert Band where he plays saxophone; he serves as the current president of the Black Student Organization; he is the publicist for the National Association for Music Education; and, is also a mentor for the Cornerstone First Generation Program.

OLIVIA PERLICK '27

Olivia Perlick '27 is a sophomore business major from Lowell, Indiana. Her favorite part of Valpo is the community and people she works with. She has developed amazing friendships and faculty relationships through classes and student organizations. At Valpo she is involved in Delta Sigma Pi sorority as an Executive Committee member, Society of Women in Business, Accounting Club, Dean's Leadership Council for the College of Business, and Luce/Community Band where she plays the flute.

ASH OVERBECK '26

Ash Overbeck '26 is from Valparaiso, Indiana, and is a digital media arts major with a French minor! She is usually taking part in her French Club activities, helping mentors for her cornerstone program, and going to almost every home game for basketball! Ash chose Valpo because of the amazing opportunities in the communications department.

NOAH HOUSEWORTH '25

Noah Houseworth '25 is a biomechanical engineering major from Edwardsburg, Michigan! Noah is involved in the Interfraternity Council, tutors at the Hesse Center, and serves as a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity! Noah's favorite thing about Valpo is the size of the university. He feels like you can truly get to know everyone you meet, and that includes the professors and staff! Noah's most memorable moment was his bid day, when he joined SigEp. It's truly been his favorite part of college so far, and that night was an impactful and exciting one!

EMMA CARPENTER '27

Emma Carpenter '27 is a sophomore nursing major from Hebron, Indiana. One of the things Emma loves most about being at Valpo is the limitless room for personal growth. Whether it's in the classroom, through co-curriculars, or in the community, Valpo provides the perfect environment for its students to explore, learn, and develop as a person. When Emma is not in class or studying she likes to garden, thrift, and read in her free time.

There are many resources on campus to help your student succeed. Come learn about the many different academic support resources that will help your student excel in the classroom.

Student Account and Financial Aid Q&A
Center for the Arts, Duesenberg Recital Hall

We reminded your student earlier today that this bill is all theirs; however, we understand that you may be graciously helping to cover their Valpo payments. The Office of Student Accounts and Financial Aid presents an overview of student account self-service, financial aid, billing information, payment plans, and more.

3:10–4:10 p.m.
Supporting Your Residential Student (for families of students living on campus)
Center for the Arts, Theatre

As your student embarks on their college journey, how can you empower them to succeed while living on campus? Our student support team is here to help both you and your student. We will share with you information about resources, including the Counseling Center, the student Health Center, and residential life, and how they can provide support to students living on campus. We will also discuss helpful strategies and advice on guiding your student as they navigate academics and campus life while fostering their independence.

3:10–4:10 p.m.
Supporting Your Commuter Student (for families of students living at home)
Center for the Arts, Duesenberg Recital Hall

How can you champion your student's success while they navigate college life? We understand the unique needs and challenges of commuter students. Our student support team will share with you the available resources, including the Counseling Center, the Health Center, and other student support programs designed to help our commuter students thrive at Valpo. We'll also be discussing helpful strategies and recommendations on empowering your student to ensure they are set-up for success during their Valpo journey.

4:15–5:15 p.m.
Student Resources Fair
Harre Union, Ballrooms A & B

This is your chance to ask all the questions that would embarrass your student. Talk with representatives from various campus departments and gather resource information. See the list of participants in your FOCUS folder.

WELCOME TO VALPO

Dear Family Members:

Valparaiso University proudly welcomes you and your new Valpo student to FOCUS!

FOCUS provides you and your student with the knowledge and support necessary to ensure a successful transition to Valparaiso University. Activities have been carefully planned to enhance your total orientation experience; we encourage you to attend every session. Meet and greet as many other family members as possible. Take this time to inform and prepare yourself for this big transition.

The FOCUS staff is committed to facilitating your student's orientation, and we are available to help you throughout your visit.

Your student is now an important part of Valpo's close-knit community — and so are you. We're excited to welcome everyone to Valpo!

Sincerely,

Ryan Bye
Director of Student Involvement & New Student Programs
